

3/14

From what company do you buy your appliances (ranges, refrigerators) and what brand do you buy?

We go out for Bids, but we have purchased from Siano Appliance Distributors, Whirlpool Appliance, Discount Appliance, Inc., & Sears

I look on line and print out two (Sears (because Kenmore is good appliance) and one other), then I get one locally, we are a small rural community. I ask for the "Energy Star Products".

We buy from Lowes - they offer us special pricing and free delivery

GE or Kenmore-normally Sears, Home Depot or Lowe's

Sears

In the past we bought appliances direct through General Electric. We bought the type with the indentions in the doors to open instead of ones with handles that were constantly being broken. However in the past 2 or 3 years we discovered we could by the same GE products in bulk from Home Depot for less than what we paid GE.

I procure all of our appliances, usually with GE, Whirlpool, Sears, and Allied Appliances. I have a detailed list of the things I want on each appliance and whoever can fill the bill and has the cheaper bid is usually who I go with. It depends on the vendor as to what brand we use.

We buy from Sears/Kenmore brand

Whirlpool or the cheaper that is made by Whirlpool we want the parts to all be the same for repair and I buy locally from Comanche Appliance (locally for us is within 25 miles.

Sears, Home Depot

General Electric Hotpoint brand

Sears - Kenmore

Sears for Ranges and Refrigerators

Lowes or HD supply which ever has the lowest price. Any brand

Sears has the cheapest prices

Home Depot

16.5 fridge= General Electric
30" gas range =General Electric
30" elect range =General Electric

Sears / Kenmore

HD supply-GE energy efficient/16.5 cf.

We buy from Lowe's. They have told us they will beat any others' prices and they do.

We buy Whirlpool or Amana appliances from Parker Lumber in Shiner, Texas.

Discount Vacuum & Appliance – GE refrigerators they have great prices Lowes – stoves Frigidaire

We buy ours locally. They deliver and install for us. Brand depends on what they have in stock at the time but all are Energy Star.

I usually buy at Lowes and I buy the Whirlpool on refrigerators and the stoves ours are all the small 4 burner gas stoves and those are Holiday brand. If I can get a better price from HD Supply at the time then I buy from them.

Lowes (price matched) usually Frigidaire

Request bids from GE Appliance, Siano, Sears

We have found that Brown Stove-works last for a very long time. Good luck on refrigerators!

Most of our appliances are purchased through GE.