TRAINER

STACIA WATERS has been working with Public Housing since 2006 when she was hired as the Executive Director of Atlanta Property Management (Housing Authority). She began managing Hughes Springs Housing Authority in 2017 and Linden Housing Authority in 2018. She loves working with Public Housing and enjoys encouraging and inspiring other agencies to help their residents be successful. In addition to her Public Housing experience, Stacia has over 25 years of experience in office administration, file management, finance, and accounting. She has worked for a Texas-licensed residential childcare facility, an architectural manufacturer, and a travel agency with an in-house attorney where she developed policies and procedures, wrote waivers, handled all aspects of finance and accounting, developed inventory and purchasing systems, and interpreted blueprints and contracts. Stacia is a Texas Certified Occupancy Professional/Public Housing, a Texas Certified Housing Administrator/Public Housing, Certified Rent and Income Specialist, Public Housing Occupancy Specialist, and a Texas Real Estate Agent. She has served on several Emergency Services Districts, Community Service boards, and helped other organizations develop Bylaws, Articles of Incorporation and assisted them in obtaining their Tax-Exempt status. Stacia has served on various committees and boards for THA. Stacia has been married to Jason since 2005 and she has one daughter, McKenslei.
